

1. Punctuality and respect for lesson times

Punctuality is necessary for the respect of all course participants. In the event of a delay or a preventive absence, please notify the INTUBATI EM teaching secretariat.

2. Keep work stations tidy.

Out of respect for everyone, always leave the workplace tidy and clean as you would like to find it.

It is not allowed to consume food or drinks (with the exception of water) on the workstation and more generally inside the teaching and simulation classrooms.

3. Use with care and respect the devices and the means of simulation and the mannequins available for the course

Use with care the devices that are made available because in case of damage or tampering of tools, vehicles and structures, you will be held responsible and you will be obliged to pay damages.

4. Regular conduct of lessons

If serious reasons hinder or prevent us from running the Course smoothly on the pre-established date, it may be suspended, postdated, or canceled: registration will remain valid under the same conditions for the next course. The following are considered serious reasons: epidemic, destruction or theft of the structures of the Center, serious impediment or illness of all or some instructors, provisions of the Authorities and other causes of force majeure.

5. Theft or loss

The Training Center declines all responsibility in the event of theft or loss of objects owned by the learners.

6. Payment

This is a limited number course, the registration will be confirmed only after the payment of the balance of the participation fee by bank transfer within 10 days of this registration.

The place will be blocked only upon receipt of the accountant of the payment to the email address info@intubati.net.

7. Waivers

Once you have registered, in case of absence, you will be entitled to recover the course in the next edition, only if communicated within 15 days from the start of the course. In case of failure to communicate within 15 days from the start of the course, you will not be entitled to recovery and the amount paid will not be refunded.

8. Misbehavior

The Training Center declines all responsibility in the event of verbal and / or physical offenses resulting from incorrect behavior by the participants in the course, but reserves the right to suspend and exclude from the course the participants to whom such incorrect behavior may have been attributed, maintaining in any case, the right to the total balance of the course by the latter.
